

OUR THANKS

To the many people who have assisted by the loan of furniture, clothes, transport and many items of the properties etc.

To Mrs. Elsworth who has again undertaken the bookings.

THE GROUP

The Burton Joyce Players, as well as putting on three productions a year, meet on the third Friday of each month when a varied and interesting programme is arranged.

You are cordially invited to join us - new members are always welcome, and if interested please contact our Secretary, Mrs. M. May at:

47a Main Street,
Burton Joyce,
Nottingham. Tel. No. B. J. 3601.

Harry is a zealous traffic warden, whose eccentric hobbies of collecting stuffed birds and folk dancing cause great friction between him and his wife. Bad-tempered Gran's constant criticism of Harry does not improve matters.

Also Harry's daughter, Ruby, is engaged to weedy Gerald who finds he has an allergy to birds.

However, Harry's hobby seemingly pays off when he returns home with an owl which is stuffed with hundreds of pounds. Enthusiastic plans are made for the wedding and new furniture is installed. But then Inspector Travers appears on the scene, and informs Harry he has been spending stolen money . . . . .

WISHING YOU ALL AN ENJOYABLE EVENING
